Mother

Original “slow art” by Kristen Palana

This artwork was created to honor the sacred power of divine feminine energy and unconditional love. It celebrates the strength, protection, and deep wisdom that flows through generations of mothers, caregivers, and creators.

At the heart of the drawing is the Vesica Piscis, a sacred geometry symbol representing divine femininity and motherhood across time, space, and culture. Found in multiple spiritual traditions, it also appears in mathematics, architecture, and sacred art.

Suggested Placement:
Hang this piece in a nursery, bedroom, creative studio, or sacred corner of your home to invite comfort, connection, and grounded love.

This piece is a visual anchor of love and connection. It serves as a gentle reminder of the strength, wisdom, and compassion that flows through generations. Use it for reflection, healing, or simply to hold space for the love that surrounds and sustains you.

✨ May it bring you comfort, clarity, and the deep peace of knowing you are held and loved.
